“The eyes of all look to You, and You give them their food at the proper time.
You open Your hand; You satisfy the desire of every living thing” (Psalm 145:15-16).

Dear Friends of DLS,

In the feeding of the 5,000 Jesus demonstrates that He provides. With five loaves of bread and two fish He fed the multitude so that “all ate and were satisfied” (Matthew 14:20). In the same way the Lord our God is the one who provides for us. We must remember that the Lord our God is the one who provides for us physically, giving us all that we need for this body and life. As we pray in the Lord’s Prayer it is He that gives us each day “our daily bread.” But more importantly we must be mindful that the Lord our God is the one who provides for us spiritually, giving us all that we need for the life of the world to come. The Bible teaches us that “the reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the works of the devil” (1 John 3:8), that by His cross and empty tomb, death has lost its victory and death has lost its sting (1 Corinthians 15:54-57), and that with His blood Jesus has obtained for us an eternal inheritance because “the blood of Jesus cleanses us from all sin” (1 John 1:7). This miracle proves that Jesus is able to provide and He is the one who supplies all our needs of body and soul.

In Christ,
Pastor Cearlock

What Would Jesus Do?

I bet Mrs. Kuske sometimes thinks I'm crazy. I like history and I love political science. So any debates, discussions, interviews, sound bites and other things relating to politics, I listen. I have been registered as an independent most of my voting life. I am conservative. Having said that, I wonder what Jesus would do if He chose to have a sit down chat with both presidential candidates. Doesn't he expect the best from us on ALL occasions? Doesn't He want us to treat each other as we wished to be treated? Doesn't He clearly give us rules and guidelines to follow? I know God requires me to use my intelligence and evaluate, pray, and vote.

-Mr. Kuske

Concordia Publishing House Releases Luther's Small Catechism Flash Cards in Tinycards App by Duolingo

In response to the growing demand for resources to teach children and students Luther's Small Catechism, Concordia Publishing House is releasing six sets of flash cards built specifically for the new iOS application Tinycards. Tinycards is a free flash card app from the creators of Duolingo that makes memorization fun.

The application is currently available only on iOS, but Duolingo has disclosed on their social media channels that they are currently working on an Android application and a Web version of the program.

The six packs of flash cards in the app help anyone learn the following sections of Luther's Small Catechism:

- The Ten Commandments
- The Creed
- The Lord's Prayer
- Baptism
- Confession
- Sacrament of the Altar

Once you have downloaded the app, search for Concordia Publishing House and click the "Follow" button. The packs will then be added to your stream.

In addition to the Tinycards app, CPH has several other tools to help children learn the Small Catechism. Most recently, CPH released the Small Catechism skill for Amazon Echo. This new format for Luther's Small Catechism imparts the plain, simple teachings of the Lutheran Church in an exciting, interactive approach. CPH has also created printable Small Catechism flash cards that you can download for free.
